BENEATH SPRINGHILL: THE MAURICE RUDDICK STORY | OCT. 10-13
Streaming on demand from Oct 10-13 on the BMO Virtual Studio

Created and performed by Beau Dixon. A sixty-minute chamber musical that chronicles the life of Maurice Ruddick, an African Canadian who survived the historic mining disaster in Springhill, Nova Scotia in 1958. This one-man show will recall the events of seven miners trapped two miles beneath a small mining town, the effect it had on their rural Canadian community and the racial tension that surfaced as a result.

NO CHARGE. DONATIONS WELCOME.
